

CHFR Workshop: Dyssynchrony in Heart Failure

11:10:2018

10.00 - 14.45

Oslo University Hospital, Rikshospitalet A, Seminarroom A3.3067

PROGRAM

10.00-10.05	Welcome Professor Helge Skulstad
10.05-10.50	The role of imaging in patients with left ventricular dyssynchrony Invited speaker: Professor Theodore P. Abraham, MD, PhD University of California, San Francisco Moderator: Prof Helge Skulstad
10.50-11.05	Coffee break/discussions
11.05-11.20	Myocardial work for dyssynchrony assessment Professor Eigil Samset, PhD GE Cardiovascular Ultrasound, UiO Moderator: John Aalen
11.20-11.35	Myocardial work by CMR Camilla K. Larsen, MD Oslo University Hospital and University of Oslo Moderator: Prof Eigil Samset
11.35-11.45	Myocardial work – a more sensitive marker of dysfunction than strain? Ole Jakob Sletten, MD Oslo University Hospital and University of Oslo Moderator: Prof Eigil Samset
11.45-12.00	Right ventricular function during dyssynchrony Petter Storsten, MD Oslo University Hospital and University of Oslo Moderator: Espen Bøe
12.00-13.00	Lunch
13.00-13.15	Afterload hypersensitivity in left bundle branch block John Aalen, MD Oslo University Hospital and University of Oslo Moderator: Espen Bøe
13.15-13.35	The effect of dyssynchrony on diastolic function Espen W. Remme, PhD Oslo University Hospital and University of Oslo Moderator: Prof Helge Skustad

PROGRAM

13.35-13.50	Left atrial mechanics in left bundle branch block Associate professor Katsuji Inoue, MD, PhD Ehime University Graduate School of Medicine, Japan Moderator: Espen W. Remme
13.50-14.00	Coffee break/discussions
14.00-14.20	Acute CRT response during wide and narrow QRS Espen Bøe, MD, PhD Oslo University Hospital and University of Oslo Moderator: Espen W. Remme
14.20-14.40	Future perspectives of research in the field of dyssynchrony Professor Helge Skulstad, MD, PhD Oslo University Hospital and University of Oslo Moderator: John Aalen
14.40-14.45	Closing remarks Espen W. Remme
